Constitution
Of the Hillsborough School Employees Federation Local
4154, FEA, NEA, AFT, AFL-CIO

ARTICLE I
NAME
This organization shall be known as the Hillsborough School Employees Federation (HSEF) Local 4154, Florida Education Association (FEA), National Education Association (NEA), American Federation of Teachers (AFT), AFL-CIO, representing all custodial, maintenance, transportation, security and student nutrition employees, excluding confidential employees, supervisors and managers as defined by Chapter 447 of the Florida Statute, employed by the School District of Hillsborough County, Florida (SDHC).

ARTICLE II
OBJECTIVES
The purposes of this organization shall be:

Section 1. To secure full trade union rights for all employees who are eligible for membership.
Section 2. To advance the economic, social, and political well-being of the membership.
Section 3. To promote the improvement of standards in the employment situation of the membership and the standards of the employer as they relate to the public we serve.
Section 4. To encourage mutual understanding and cooperation among the membership.
Section 5. To promote democracy and equality in the society at large.
Section 6. To advocate for higher standards of service in the delivery of education for the children of Hillsborough County.
Section 7. To advance cooperation, education, understanding and trust between the parents of the children attending Hillsborough County schools and HSEF.
Section 8. To participate in building a stronger labor community.
Section 9. To seek cooperative relationships with the employer built on mutual respect and trust, as long as such relationships best serve the needs of the membership.
ARTICLE III
MEMBERSHIP

Section 1. There shall be three classes of membership within HSEF. Those classes of membership shall be known as active, inactive and retired. Only current, inactive or retired employees as defined in Article I of this document are eligible to be members of HSEF. No employee that is confidential, supervisory or managerial in nature, as defined in Article I, shall be eligible for membership. Membership dues for each class of membership shall be defined within the HSEF Constitution.

Section 2. Active members shall be employees of SDHC and whose dues are in current standing with HSEF (as defined in Section 5 below). Active members shall have the right to attend all meetings and functions of HSEF, hold elective office, fill appointive positions as described within the HSEF Constitution, and debate, and/or vote on issues before the General Membership.

Section 3. Inactive members shall be employees that are on approved leave of absence from SDHC and whose dues are paid to within 60 calendar days of current standing with HSEF. Such conditions being met, they would enjoy the rights and privileges accorded to active members with the following exceptions; (1) they cannot hold elective office and (2) they cannot fill appointive positions. Employees that wish to maintain active membership status must be in current standing with HSEF, as defined in Section 5 below.

Section 4. Retired members shall be former employees that have formally retired from SDHC, are receiving or are eligible to receive benefits through the Florida Retirement System and are in current standing with HSEF as defined in Section 5 below. Retired members are recognized as a vital part of the organization and are encouraged to attend and participate in the meetings and functions of HSEF. However, retired members shall not be able to do the following: (1) hold elective office, (2) fill appointive positions or (3) vote on issues before the General Membership or other determinative bodies of HSEF. The Local shall take the appropriate steps to charter a retiree's chapter, assuming sufficient interest on the part of the retiree membership.

Section 5. Current standing shall be defined as receipt of membership dues by the tenth (10th) of the month for the preceding month. Employees receiving wages from SDHC and having dues deducted simultaneously, through payroll deduction, shall be considered current for the purpose of this section. Any member that is in arrears more than sixty (60) calendar days from the tenth (10th) of each month shall be considered suspended and their membership privileges revoked. Upon non-payment of an arrearage of dues for ninety-one (91) calendar days membership will be considered cancelled and that member will be dropped from the membership rolls. The terms current standing and good standing are synonymous within the context of this Constitution. Notice shall be provided to any member that fails to pay dues after the first thirty (30) days of non-payment of the terms of Article III, Section 5.

Section 6. No person shall be denied membership on the basis of sex, race, national origin, religious or political belief, sexual orientation or socioeconomic status.
Section 7. Discipline of members.

(a) A member may be disciplined by the organization for actions contrary to this Constitution or to the interests of the union or its membership. Such action may only be initiated by the bringing of written and signed charges to the Executive Board by two or more members of the local; these charges must include a specific and detailed accounting, including any documentation, of the allegations against the member.

(b) Upon the receipt of such charges, the Executive Board shall cause a preliminary investigation to be conducted in order to determine whether the charges against the member have merit. In addition, at this time, the Executive Board shall give a copy of the charges to the accused member.

(c) Following the preliminary investigation, the Executive Board shall vote on the question of whether a disciplinary hearing should be held. If a majority of the Executive Board votes to hold a hearing, the member shall be given at least ten (10) days written notice of the hearing.

(d) At a disciplinary hearing, the accused member shall have the right to be represented by a person of his or her choice, and shall have the right to question the charges and present evidence and witnesses to support their defense. At the conclusion of the hearing, a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the Executive Board shall be required for discipline. If a member of the Executive Board has brought the charges against the member, that Board member shall recuse him/herself from the vote.

(e) A disciplined member may appeal the decision of the Executive Board to the membership by requesting a vote at the next regular meeting. A simple majority of the members voting shall be sufficient to overrule the decision of the Executive Board to discipline.

ARTICLE IV
ELECTION OF OFFICERS

Section 1. Elections shall be conducted in accordance with the AFT Constitution and the standards set forth in the Labor-Management Reporting and Disclosure Act of 1959 (LMRDA).

Section 2. The organization shall hold elections for officers for a term of office of three (3) years to commence on July 1st and expire on June 30th, three (3) years later. - Electronic media

To members in good standing for the proceeding sixty (60) days, in such manner as to ensure the secrecy of the ballot, no later than ten (10) days following the close of nominations. The period between the notification and return date for the ballots shall be no fewer than twenty (20) calendar days.

Section 8. The ballots shall be tabulated by the Elections Committee or the Elections Committee shall oversee the third party tabulations, and a majority of the ballots cast shall determine the outcome of the election. In the absence of a majority, the Elections Committee shall conduct a run-off election between the two candidates who have received the most votes for the office in question. The Elections Committee shall prepare and send ballots using the same method of the initial election to all members who were eligible to vote in the initial election, in such manner as to ensure the secrecy of the ballot. The period between the notification and return date for the ballot shall be no less than twenty (20) calendar days.

Section 9. Challenges and objections to the election must be submitted in writing, with a statement of supporting reasons that includes specific facts, as well as any documentation, to the Elections Committee within five (5) days of the count. The Elections Committee shall issue its written opinion regarding the objections no later than ten (10) days after receipt of such objections.

Section 10. The election results will be published and distributed to the membership within thirty (30) days of the count. All elections materials, including the ballots, will be kept in a secure location for one (1) year.

Section 11. Successful candidates shall assume office on July 1.

Section 12. With the exception of the President, or in case of a recall, the Executive Board will have the power to fill vacancies in its membership until the next General Election of officers.

Section 13. A petition signed by twenty-five percent (25%) of the membership, and alleging constitutional violations, fiduciary breaches or acts clearly detrimental to the union, shall be sufficient to require the Executive Board to vote on whether to conduct a recall election of the officer identified in the petition. The officer subject to recall and any Executive Board member signing the petition shall not vote on the question of a recall election. If a majority of the Executive Board approves a recall election, the Elections Committee shall supervise the recall election.

Section 14. Contract ratification votes shall be administered by the Elections Committee. Such votes shall be by secret ballot take place in the workplace.

Section 15. They shall be held in six (6) locations selected by the Elections Committee. These locations must be assigned by dividing the school district into six regions (northeast, northwest, east, west, southeast and southwest) and picking one (1) location in each region to which there is major highway access.

A quorum for conducting business for the Executive Board is sixty percent (60%) of the Board’s membership or 7 (seven) members, whichever is greater.

ARTICLE XIV
AMENDMENTS

Section 1. Any member of the organization may present a proposed amendment to the Governance Committee. The committee will review the proposed amendment and make recommendations to the Executive Board and the Site Rep Council as to whether the membership should accept or reject the amendment and its reasons for such recommendation. The Governance Committee shall report its findings directly to the membership for action at the March or September membership meetings. Any party (Executive Board, Site Rep Council or member) that wishes to present an opposing view may do so at the March or September meetings. The Governance Committee shall notify the membership of the proposed amendment by U.S. Mail no later than fifteen (15) calendar days, at their last known address, prior to the semi-annual membership meetings in the Month of March and September. Notifications by the committee shall be in both English and Spanish. Amendments shall only be considered at the March and September meetings of the membership.

Section 2. Proposed amendments must be presented in writing to the Governance Committee at least forty-five (45) days prior to the March or September membership meetings. Proposed amendments shall state the wording of the amendment, the Article(s) and Section(s) that the proposed amendment would replace as well as the impact of the change on the Constitution as written prior to the amendment.

Section 3. Two-thirds (2/3) of those members present and voting at the March or September membership meetings shall be required for passage of the amendment. The Secretary shall review the membership sign-in list prior to each vote to ensure that only current members vote. Vote shall take place after the amendment has been explained by the chairperson of the meeting and had that explanation translated into Spanish. Prior to voting each member that desires to do so must be given the opportunity to speak to the proposed amendment at least once. Only then can a motion to close debate be entertained.
